Your Majesty!

We are really pleased and delighted to have been given this extraordinary opportunity to deliver a short speech in honour of your 60th jubilee on the throne.

That's cute.

We would like to touch upon 4 main aspects of you as the Queen of the United Kingdom, that we consider the most important.

First and foremost we would appreciate your enourmous commitment to your duty and your country. We think you are the greatest personification of both majesty and mystery of the monarchy.

Secondly, to be honest, you have made more state visits to different countries than any other head of state. And we, Estonians, are extremely grateful that you decided to visit our small republic in October 2006 and that you previously sent your sons here as well. Prince Charles in November 2001 and Prince Andrew in May 1998. It has been an enormous honour to Estonia!

Thirdly, you are definitely the most photographed woman in the world and one of the biggest fashion icons. We feel great admiration for your elegant style and remarkable poise.

True love

And finally we greatly admire your sense of humour. The latest example of it is you starring as a Bond girl together with Daniel Craig as James Bond when you were parachuting into the Opening Ceremony of the London Olympics. It was a bit of a fun for you and a great surprise to many of us.

PLEASE GO AWAY
GRANDMA,
I'M TRYING TO WORK HERE

Congratulations on your great jubilee on behalf of Pärnu Coeducational Gymnasium and all Estonians!

Thank you for your attention!
